

WHAT'S ON AT IPAA

15 MARCH 2022 | HOTEL REALM, CANBERRA AND ONLINE

The Graduate Data Network (GDN) encourages all data-driven, data-minded and data-curious APS employees – especially grads – to delve into data and explore the key role it plays across the Australian Public Service now and into the future. The 2022 Graduate Data Forum will showcase best practices in data use to drive policy, program and corporate delivery of outcomes across the APS and for the benefit of all Australians. Hear keynote presentations from Gayle Milnes, National Data Commissioner Designate, Dr David Gruen AO, Australian Statistician, Dr Gordon de Brouwer PSM, IPAA National President and an outstanding line-up of experts from the public sector, private sector and academia. BRIDGING THE RESEARCH POLICY GAP

There is widespread agreement, among public policy scholars, that research evidence does not translate readily into policy practice, and that more needs to be done to 'bridge the gap' between policy research and policy practice. But why is it so difficult to achieve evidence-based policy in practice? More >>>
