DATA Scheme Safeguards

Data Sharing Purposes

Sharing of Australian Government data must be in the public interest and for one of three purposes:

- Government service delivery
- Informing government policy and programs
- Research & development.

Data can not be shared for the purpose of enforcement or compliance.

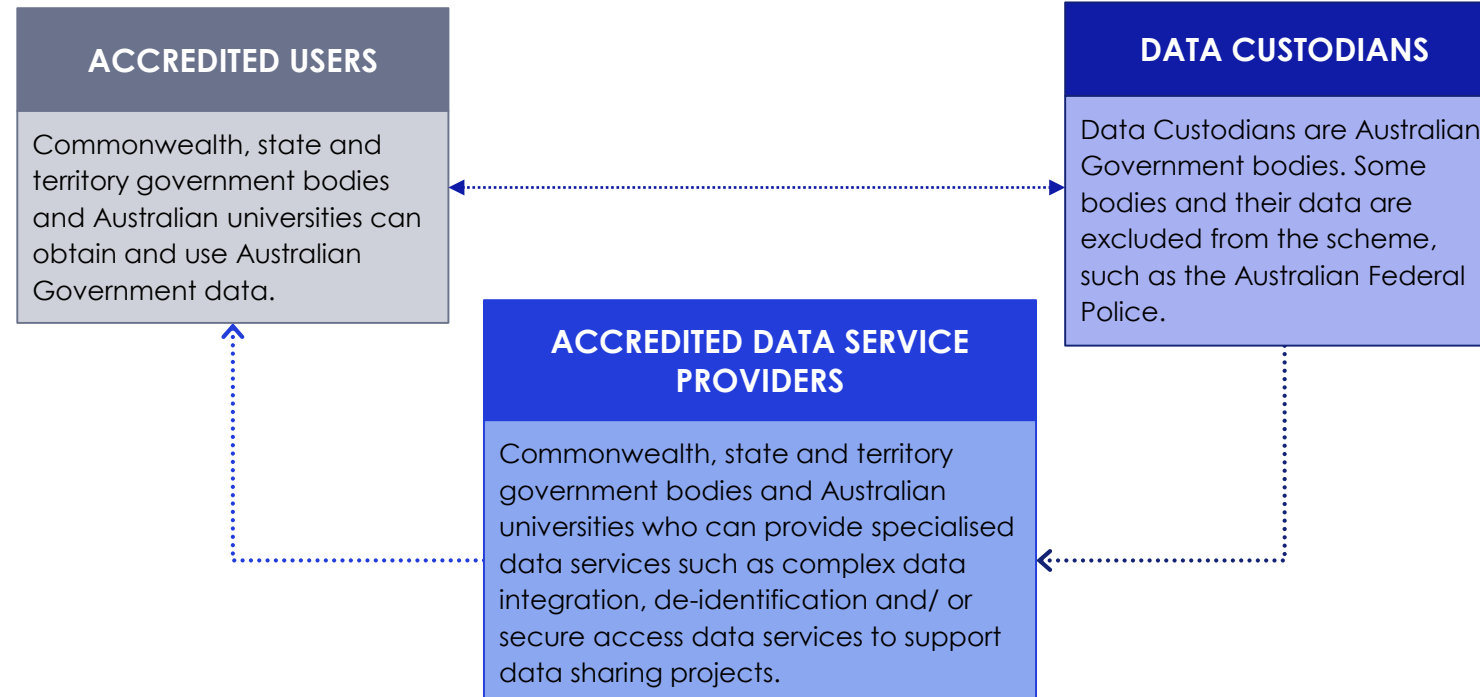

Accreditation

- Commonwealth, state and territory government bodies and Australian universities can be an Accredited User or Accredited Data Service Provider.
- The Minister or National Data Commissioner may grant accreditation.

Data Requests

- Data Custodians have no duty to share, but must provide reasons to Accredited Users if refusing a data sharing request.

DATA Scheme Operation

Data Sharing Principles

- Data Sharing Principles must be applied to all data sharing.
- The Principles manage data sharing risk by applying controls on the project, people, setting, data and output.

Privacy protections

- The DATA Scheme works with the Privacy Act 1988 to protect personal information.
- The privacy protections minimise the sharing of personal information, prohibit the re-identification and storage of data or access of personal information outside Australia.
- Express consent is always required to share biometric data.

DATA Scheme Safeguards

Regulation and compliance

- National Data Commissioner handles complaints conducts monitoring and assessment activities and investigations.
- National Data Commissioner can issue directions and seek civil and/or criminal penalties.

Transparency and reporting

National Data Commissioner must:

- keep public registers of Data Sharing Agreements, Accredited Users and Accredited Data Service Providers.
- prepare an Annual Report on participation and operation of the DATA Scheme.

Data Sharing Agreements

- Arrangements, including the application of the data sharing principles, must be documented in a Data Sharing Agreement.
- Agreements that meet scheme requirements must be registered by the National Data Commissioner to take effect.
