

IPAA ACT FUTURE LEADERS 2018 PROGRAM

THE IPAA FUTURE LEADERS PROGRAM PROVIDES AN EXCITING DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY FOR FUTURE AND EMERGING LEADERS IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, TO BROADEN PERSPECTIVES AND NETWORKS ACROSS THE PUBLIC SECTOR.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE?

The program aims to provide emerging and future leaders with an opportunity to discuss and debate challenges relevant to them, broadening their perspective in public administration whilst networking with participants from across the public sector, private sector and academia.

WHAT IS INVOLVED?

The program is an interactive series of five events and discussions, providing an opportunity for participants to contribute their ideas on how the public sector can improve the future of public administration.

Importantly, the program is not a training course. The program will be based around three key themes, integrated as follows:

- Panel Sessions – three separate panel sessions will be run, each based on one of the key themes where a panel of speakers will address the theme and the current challenges facing the sector.
- Group Work – participants will be broken into groups, with each group assigned one of the three key themes to work on throughout the program, this includes meeting outside of scheduled sessions.
- SES Sponsors – an SES sponsor will be allocated to each theme and will chair that panel session, meeting with the group once to discuss the theme.
- Panel Presentations – each group will be required to give a 5-minute presentation to the panel of SES sponsors at the final session.

WHO CAN APPLY?

The program seeks emerging and future leaders who are passionate, established and engaged about the public sector in their workplace, with aspirations of progressing to middle management and senior leadership roles.

As a guide, participants should be at the the upper-APS level (APS5 or APS6) or at Executive Level (EL1 or EL2).

Please note that this program is not open to people undertaking a graduate program.
