BUILDING CONFIDENCE IN THE APS WITH MARTIN HOFFMAN

The influence of digital technology and data to bring value for citizens has never been more important. At the heart of this transformation is the mission to make the lives of Australians simpler, safer and better. The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) is fully embracing this mission and transformation in their work, as they implement a program to deliver individualised, self-directed care packages to over a half a million Australians. In this episode we're joined by Martin Hoffman, Chief Executive Officer of the National Disability Insurance Agency and former President of IPAA NSW. IPAA SURVEY

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU IN YOUR CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT?

We're inviting all public sector employees who are based in Canberra to help shape the direction of IPAA ACT.

Complete our survey and tell us what you want from us - what themes or areas would you like to see IPAA focus on in the future and how we can best deliver these to you. We'll use your insights to inform the development of our events and capability programs and help us improve our product and service delivery.

All respondents who provide us with their feedback and include their email address, will go in the draw to win one of five (5) tickets to attend a standard IPAA event. Take the survey >>>

NEWS AND RESOURCES

AUSTRALIAN SCIENCE POLICY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Are you, or do you know an amazing scientist with a STEM PhD looking for a career change into the APS? Applications for the 2021-22 Australian Science Policy Fellowship Program are now open. The Program is an initiative run by Australia's Chief Scientist, Dr Cathy Foley, for early- to mid-career scientists wanting to become skilled policy practitioners, bringing scientific expertise into the policy process. REDUCING MENTAL HEALTH STIGMA AT WORK

Stigma in the workplace can stop workers from seeking help when it's needed. It can also lead to employees withdrawing from social situations and career opportunities. Comcare has a collection of factsheets, videos and training to help managers better understand and reduce stigma in the workplace. More >>>

50/50 BY 2030 FOUNDATION ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM | 16-17 JUNE

What will it take to achieve women's equal representation in leadership positions in Australian government and public institutions by 2030? How can improvements to date be built on and reinforced against the vagaries of political power and influence? The inaugural 50/50 Foundation Symposium activates research to drive cultural and structural change to deliver enduring gender equity in public leadership in Australia. More >>>

TEST YOUR EVERYDAY BIAS USING BEHAVIOURAL INSIGHTS

Identifying your cognitive biases is tough, but they can be detrimental to the policy-making process. Take this example test, posted on Apolitical, to uncover assumptions and find behavioural science techniques to overcome them. More >>>
