

REGULATING IN FAST MOVING TIMES

HALF DAY FORUM

Regulators and policymakers are grappling with new challenges in a rapidly changing regulatory context, requiring them to think and act in different ways. This applies to a range of regulatory activities spanning: regulatory regime design, engagement and education activities, compliance and enforcement. This forum will profile recent innovations and enable participants to share their own experiences or regulatory challenges and solutions.

FORUM HOST

Jenet Connell
Deputy Australian Public Service Commissioner, Australian Public Service Commission

FORUM CHAIR

Nerida O'Loughlin
*Chair,
Australian Communications and Media Authority*

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

David Parker AM
*Chair,
Clean Energy Regulator*

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dave Pepper
*Deputy Director-General,
Access Canberra*

SESSION A - THE UBER EFFECT CASE STUDY

This session will examine regulating disruptive technologies

Brook Dixon
*Director,
Delos Delta and former Director for ACT Government*

Natalie Malligan
General Manager NSW & ACT, UBER

Craig Simmons
Director, Community Business & Transport Regulation, Access Canberra

SESSION B - SOLAR PANELS: POWERING CODESIGN

This session will explore collaborative codesign between industry government

Michelle Crosbie
General Manager, Clean Energy Regulator

Nigel Morris
Business Development Director, Solar Analytics

NEXT STEPS

Community of Practice

*A session to discuss the possibility of a future Community of Practice arising from this forum.
Our speakers will propose a future operating model for this Community of Practice and share the vision for the volunteer committee including desirable skills and experience, commitment requirements, idea generation and expressions of interest.*