ABOUT IPAA ACT

IPAA ACT is focused on the promotion of excellence and professionalism in public administration.

It is a non-profit and non-partisan organisation that works in partnership with the public sector, the private sector, academia and other institutions, to provide a platform for debate and discussion about improving and striving for excellence in public administration in Australia.

Our members include all current Commonwealth Departments, the ACT Public Service, a range of other public and private corporate members and individual members. Collectively, our membership base represents over 150,000 professionals in public administration.

IPAA ACT is governed by a Council of senior leaders from across our membership, led by Frances Adamson, Secretary of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
